

A top-down view of a table setting featuring Moroccan-style blue and white ceramic dishes. The central focus is a large, ornate plate with a complex floral and geometric pattern in blue on a white background. This plate is set on a matching square placemat with a decorative border. To the left, a smaller plate with a similar pattern is partially visible, with a silver fork and knife resting on it. To the right, a clear, faceted glass sits on the table. In the upper right corner, a bouquet of fresh tulips in shades of red, orange, and yellow adds a touch of color. The entire arrangement is set on a light-colored wooden surface.
